

DEVELOPMENTS IN RECALL MOVE

Rumors of Names in Anti-Schri-ver Petitions Being Secured Under Misapprehension.

LIST SHOULD BE PUBLISHED

To the End That Public May Ascertain Reliability of Names and Who Secured Them.

There are many rumors afloat as to late developments in the movement to recall Mayor H. M. Schriver under the guise of the "recall league," not the least important of which is that many signatures have been secured under a misrepresentation on the part of the solicitor or misapprehension on the part of the signer, coupled with the further fact that sentiment has completely changed throughout the city during the past week.

It will be exceedingly interesting in view of these events to note the names of all who sign the recall petitions in the event of their filing; who were instrumental in securing certain signatures as indicated by the sworn statement at the bottom of each page and in fact many other things appertaining to the movement.

SHOULD BE PUBLISHED.
It is very doubtful if the required per cent of the bona fide voters—and they must be bona fide legal voters and duly attested as such—could be secured to such a petition, and hence it is due to the people that the names be carefully sifted by the commission and published—to the end that the people may have full knowledge of every angle of the proceeding.

WEARS VESTMENT MADE BY MOTHER

Rev. Granville H. Sherwood, rector of Trinity church yesterday wore a chasuble which was made by his mother some 20 years ago. The vestry of the Church of the Redeemer at Elgin presented him with the robe, following a request by him that he be allowed to purchase or replace it.

Recently Mr. Sherwood visited the Church of the Redeemer and expressed admiration of the beautiful vestment worn by the rector, Rev. William Bedford-Jones. He was astonished when told that his own mother had made it. Upon learning later that Rev. Bedford-Jones was contemplating going into another field, he communicated with the Elgin vestry, seeking to get the robe for sentiment.
